BARNES' LATEST BOOKS

Two on Their Travels

By

Mrs. Archibald R. Colquhoun

8vo. Beautifully Illustrated. $2.50 net

Contains more than one hundred illustrations in color and black-and-white from original sketches by the author. In this book we see through the eyes of a trained artist some of the fairest spots on the face of the globe. Includes part of the East Indies, the Philippines, Japan, and a journey home through Manchuria, and Siberia in flower-time. The book is full of sunshine, humor and an artist's delight in the beautiful countries visited.

One's Womenkind

A Novel

By Louis Zangwill

12mo. $1.50

"Knowledge of women is one thing that experience does not teach."

"Israel Zangwill is not the only author in his family. His brother Louis has written a number of clever books."—New York Sun.

This is one of the cleverest.

Hidden Manna

A Romance of Morocco

By A. J. Dawson

12mo. $1.50

This book reveals places and things unknown to people of leisure, travellers and even newspaper correspondents. It is unique because it represents Morocco the Real, the Oriental, the Esoteric. It is a romance with the true spirit of adventure.

Bayou Triste

A Story of Louisiana

By Josephine Hamilton Nicholls

12mo. Illustrated. $1.50

A most pleasing and entertaining story. Miss Nicholls is particularly successful in depicting the Southern negro; the love story of the young master of the broken-down old home, and of his sister, is skillfully interwoven with the humorous narrative of Louisiana plantation life.

The Love Story of Abner Stone

By Edwin Carlile Litsey

8vo. $1.20 net (postpaid, $1.29)

An exquisite study of nature, with a touching love story intertwined. A beautiful holiday gift. . . . "The author has that tender, almost feminine grace and refinement of James Lane Allen."— Minneapolis Times.

Home Thoughts

First and Second Series

By "C." (Mrs. James Farley Cox)

Theset, 2 vols.: $2.40 net; half calf, $6 net

A notable characteristic of "Home Thoughts" is that they appeal to every one. They are particularly valuable as gift-books. "The product of keen observation, tender sympathy and dexterous literary composition."

A World's Shrine

(Lake Como)

By Virginia W. Johnson

12mo. Illustrated. $1.20 net (postpaid, $1.30)

"A sort of glorified guide-book to the lake and to all that stands about it. . . . It is written with a grace and skill that makes it worthy of its subject. . . . Lake Como may very well become a shrine for world-weary pilgrims, whose thanks are due to the author for so vivid a realization of its beauties."—Interior.

Have Ready

The Lightning Conductor

THE STRANGE ADVENTURES OF A MOTOR CAR

Edited by C. N. and A. M. WILLIAMSON. 12mo, $1.50.

The adventures of a very bright and beautiful American girl, who with her maiden aunt starts to tour France on a cranky machine. A cultivated Englishman comes to their rescue, when their auto has broken down, and allowing himself to be considered a professional, is engaged as their chauffeur and courier, becoming "The Lightning Conductor." Sprightly humor pervades the descriptions of familiar highways and rare byways in Provence, Spain, Italy, Capri and Corsica. For the lovers of a brightly written story, set in a cheerful atmosphere, this book will prove a delight.

A VOLUME OF MASTERLY PARODIES

Borrowed Plumes By OWEN SEAMAN 16mo, $1.25

Mr. Seaman's "Battle of the Bays" is already in its fourth edition. "Borrowed Plumes" contains twenty-two parodies covering the Elizabeths of the Letters and of the German Garden, Mr. Dooley, Hall Caine, Corelli, Henry Harland, Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, "John Oliver Hobbes," Meredith, Hewlett, Henry James, Sir John Lubbock, Maeterlinck, C. Bernard Shaw, Stephen Phillips, etc.

"Thackeray or Bret Harte would, in all probability have gladly taken him into their company. . . . Why he could not have written all of the works of the authors he parodies it is difficult to see."—N. Y. Tribune.
"He imitates with wit and skill."—Critic.
"Full of good things."—Boston Transcript.
"Every paragraph, every line reflects the diction and personality of the victim of the moment . . . parody at its best."—Chicago Post.
"He is as clever a cartoonist with his pen as Thomas Nast with his pencil."—Portland (Me.) Press.

The Latest Volume of Champlin's Young Folks' Cyclopaedia

Literature and Art (INCLUDING MUSIC) 8vo, $2.50

This volume contains 270 illustrations and about 8700 references in the index. It consists of brief accounts of the great books, buildings, statues, pictures, operas, etc., etc. One of the fifty books of 1901 selected by the New York State Library Association.

"Few poems, plays, novels, pictures, statues, or fictitious characters that children—or most of their parents—of our day are likely to inquire about will be missed here. . . . Mr. Champlin's judgment seems unusually sound. [The volume] will be welcome and useful."—Nation.
"A most valuable reference book."—Bookman.
"It may be that its completeness will make it serviceable as a reference book to many of maturer years."—N. Y. Tribune.
"The pictures are varied and truly illustrative."—Times' Saturday Review.

HOLIDAY PUBLICATIONS

ROMANCES OF EARLY AMERICA

By EDWARD ROBINS, author of "Actors and Actresses," etc. Crown 8vo. Handsomely bound in cloth. Decorative title-page and twelve phototype illustrations. $2.50 net; by mail, $2.65. Half crushed levant, $5.00 net; by mail, $5.15.

These romances include sketches of some of the love affairs of famous belles and well-known beaux of colonial and revolutionary times and the early days of our nation, the characters having been selected from all parts of the country. The sketches are sparkling and entertaining and give pleasant glimpses of love-making in the olden time.

SPAIN and HER PEOPLE

By JEREMIAH ZIMMERMAN. Crown 8vo. Cloth, full gilt. 24 full-page half-tone illustrations. $2.00 net; by mail, $2.17.

An interesting narrative of a delightful trip through a delightful country, giving a different idea of Spain and the Spanish people from that usually entertained; one that, on the whole, is decidedly attractive.

SOME EARLY PRINTERS

And their Colophons. By JOSEPH SPENCER KENNARD, Ph.D., D.C.L. Printed from type. Edition limited to 450 copies. Bound in genuine parchment. $3.00 net; by mail, $3.15.

Printed in red and black, on hand-made paper, it will attract all collectors of rare books.

"The strongest tale of the time of Christ since 'Ben Hur.'"

ADNAH

A Tale of the Time of Christ. By J. BRECKENRIDGE ELLIS, author of "Garcilaso," etc. 12mo. Cloth. $1.25.

A spirited and skilfully drawn picture of life in Palestine during our Lord's ministry. While a love story is the fictional binding thread of the historical events, the real message of the book focuses on the effect of Christ's presence and teachings on the life of the hero. The book cannot be slighted or glossed over without positive loss.

ANN ARBOR TALES

By KARL EDWIN HARRIMAN. 12mo. Cloth. Decorative title-page and cover design in the college colors. $1.20 net; by mail, $1.32.

Mr. Harriman is an Ann Arbor man and has written for Harper's Weekly, Lippincott's Magazine, The Era, etc. This is his first volume, but we feel sure that the public will not let it be his last. There are a freshness and spice in his style that few authors show.

WHY MY PHOTOGRAPHS ARE BAD

By CHARLES M. TAYLOR, JR., author of "Odd Bits of Travel with Brush and Camera," etc. Large 12mo. Cloth. Fully illustrated. $1.00 net; by mail, $1.10. Tourists' edition, full limp leather, round corners, gilt edges. $2.00 net; by mail, $2.10.

It tells of errors made by amateurs and how to avoid them. It has been pronounced the most practical book on the subject ever published.

New Volumes in the Wit and Humor Series

WIT AND HUMOR OF AMERICAN STATESMEN

16mo. Cloth. With frontispiece of Abraham Lincoln. 50 cents net; by mail, 55 cents. Full limp leather, 80 cents net; by mail, 85 cents.

This represents a collection of twenty years, including the best stories and anecdotes told by American statesmen and politicians.

FRENCH WIT AND HUMOR

16mo. Cloth. With frontispiece of Alphonse Daudet. 50 cents net; by mail, 55 cents. Full limp leather, 80 cents net; by mail, 85 cents.

These selections, translated from the French especially for this volume, represent specimens of the best wit of different periods of French history.

Pippa Passes

By ROBERT BROWNING

Illustrated Holiday Edition

This is the drama that first won the public to Browning, and the work has grown steadily in popularity for the past 60 years. The present edition is fully annotated; the text followed is that of the London edition of 1878. The most unique feature of the book consists of the six full-page photogravures, from original drawings by Louis Meynell, which are remarkable for the fidelity with which they have caught the spirit of the poet, as well as for their clever and graceful execution. No more beautiful edition of Browning's famous play has ever been offered to the public.

Illustrated Cabinet Edition of

Tennyson's Poems

The complete poetical works of Alfred, Lord Tennyson, edited and annotated by Prof. William J. Rolfe. In 12 volumes, with about five illustrations to each, including photogravures and etchings from paintings by Edward Lear, one of the poet's life-long friends, and also from landscapes and figure paintings by Doré, Edwin A. Abbey, Frederick Dielman, and others. The text has been edited with that scrupulous accuracy for which the name of Dr. Rolfe is a synonym, and the variorum readings and other critical memoranda are invaluable. In the prosecution of his work the editor obtained the cordial approval and co-operation of Lord Tennyson and his family. In the most literal sense, this edition must be pronounced definitive. Sold only in sets.

SIXTEENTH EDITION.

PARIS, PAST AND PRESENT.

By HENRY HAYNIE.

This history of the capital of Europe, as Paris is often called, is a work wherein every page is full of thought and is admirably written by an American who lived in France for twenty years. It is a work which gives a complete and graphic account of Paris from its earliest moments to the present time.

Readers, when they have finished with this work, will know more of the religious, political, social, moral, economical, intellectual and artistic life of Paris than they ever knew before, or can possibly learn from any other similar publication.

Cloth, gilt top, profusely illustrated with photogravure and half-tone engravings.

Two volumes, 8vo, gilt tops, boxed, . . net, $4.00
Postpaid, ... $4.32
Same, three-quarters crushed levant, boxed, net, $8.00. Postpaid, ... $8.32

THE LIFE AND WRITINGS OF ALEXANDRE DUMAS.

By HARRY A. SPURR.

Part I. of the work is devoted to the career of Dumas from his birth to his manhood and fame. Part II. deals with the character of the man. Part III. deals briefly with the plays and gives much attention to the romances—their origin, merit and authenticity, with illustrative anecdotes concerning the more notable books. Part IV. comprises a defense of Dumas against the charges generally brought against him, with an attempt at an appreciation of his genius.

One volume, octavo, with numerous portraits, etc., gilt top, net, $2.00; postpaid, ... $2.15

LETTERS BETWEEN BISMARCK AND KAISER WILHELM I.

Edited by HORST KOHL.

These letters extend from 1852, when Wilhelm I. was still a prince, to 1887. They cover a wide variety of subjects, but the greater portion of them has to do with the political questions of the day.

With portraits and with letters in facsimile from the Emperor to Bismarck, and vice versa.

Two volumes, 8vo, cloth, well printed and bound, gilt tops, net, $4.00; postpaid. $4.40
Same, three-quarters crushed levant, gilt tops, boxed, ... net, $8.00

THE STORY OF DU BARRY.

By JAMES L. FORD.

Author of "The Literary Shop," etc.

An important and interesting account of the last of the "queens of the left hand" and of the production of David Belasco's great play, by Mr. Ford, who has made an exhaustive study of the period of Louis XV.

The illustrations, decorations, typography, binding, etc., are the finest ever shown in any such book. There are fifty-five half-tone engravings and six photogravures. These give a complete series of pictures of the play. Some of them also reproduce the unique stage properties used in the play.

8vo, cloth, gilt top, boxed, ... net, $2.00
Postpaid, ... $2.29

THE LAST AMERICAN.

By JOHN A. MITCHELL.

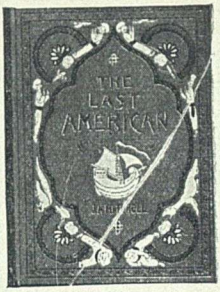
Author of "Amos Judd," "The Pines of Lory," etc.



An amusing and satirical account of the adventures of a party of Persian explorers among the ruins of America in the year 2951 A.D.

The special features of this Edition de Luxe are eight full-page illustrations in COLORS by F. W. READ, made under the supervision of Mr. Mitchell. In addition there are decorations by Alfred D. Blashfield, and all of Mr. Mitchell's own illustrations, with few exceptions, are shown. The typographical part of the work has been done anew in the best manner, and the printing and binding are especially attractive.

One of the most beautiful presentation books published during the year, with a most striking cover.

12mo, cloth, ... $1.50

SON! or The Wisdom of "Uncle Eph," the Modern Yutzo.

By LORD GILHOOLEY.

Printed on tobacco paper and with a binding of blue denim with roughened edges.

Each of the aphorisms in the book is introduced by the word "Son!" as coming from the lips of Uncle Eph. With frontispiece, decorative borders, etc.

THE AMERICAN DIARY OF A JAPANESE GIRL.

By MISS MORNING GLORY.

A modern Japanese girl gives her impressions of America. Miss Morning Glory is quaint, romantic, simple, and clever at once. She writes with a sprightly grace and distinction of style that show her to be an artist, true to the traditions of Japan.

Beautifully illustrated by the well-known Japanese artist, Genjiro Yeto. With frontispiece in colors, a number of full-page half-tone engravings and Japanese borders in yellow. Bound with grass-cloth back and white and gold sides.

Octavo, boxed, net, $1.60; postpaid, . . . $1.75

LOVE, LAURELS AND LAUGHTER.

By BEATRICE HANSCOM.

A collection of light lyrical verses written to please every mood.

The seventy or more graceful poems gathered together under this decidedly original title have mostly appeared in the "Century," in "Life," in "Puck" and in other American periodicals. Miss Hanscom has a light touch and a good ear; her metre is smooth and her poems are musical and contain original ideas very neatly expressed.

Printed on good paper, and daintily bound, with a frontispiece in two colors by William James Hurlbut.

111 Fifth Ave., New York Akron, Ohio

IN THE DAYS OF ST. CLAIR

By Dr. James Ball Naylor, author of "Ralph Marlowe," "The Sign of the Prophet," etc. Cloth, illustrated, $1.50.

"To those who like a book of action with 'something always doing,' Dr. Naylor's story is to be heartily recommended."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"Dr. Naylor has a Cooperesque gift for delineating the character of the noble savage, but in this book he has shaken off much of the tediousness of Cooper and makes his dialogue brisk and brief. The story moves all the time and it carries the reader with it."—Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

POCO A POCO

By William Franklin Johnson. Cloth, illustrated by W. H. Fry, $1.50.

"This is a very pleasing novel in which stories of fabulous wealth and of strenuous love alternate with the varying fortunes of the gentleman who in hours of need proves to be a doughty and formidable champion in the roped arena."—New Orleans Picayune.

"One can safely say that the hero of this story is typically American."—Seattle Times.

TOLD BY THE DEATH'S HEAD

By Maurus Jokai, translated by S. E. Boggs. Cloth, illustrated by Charles Hope Provost, $1.50.

"This book is really enjoyable. It is entirely new in the way of anything written by English or American authors, and Jokai introduces the reader to new people and new scenes. The story is a romantic one, but so different from the regular romances that this quality alone is enough to make the perusal a pleasure."—San Francisco Post.

THE INVISIBLES

By E. Earl Christopher. Cloth, illustrated by W. S. Lukens, $1.50.

"This powerful story received its title from a secret band by the name of 'The Invisibles,' whose members were all over the globe and whose doings were enveloped in darkness. The plot of the novel is most skilfully constructed. The scenes are climaxes and the denouement is sufficiently unexpected and startling to surprise even the most blase reader."—Indianapolis Sentinel.

IN WHITE AND BLACK

By W. W. Pinson. Cloth, illustrated by Bert Ball, $1.50.

"A domestic novel in which will be found the most attractive elements of Southern life."—New York Journal.

"This book is decidedly original and makes good reading."—Bookseller.

THE BLUE BADGE OF COURAGE

By Col. H. H. Hadley, one of the most noted rescue workers of the world. Cloth, illustrated, $1.25.

"The Colonel has a fund of humor and makes practical use of it. He can tell preachers' jokes and gamblers' stories with equal felicity."—Troy Press.

"A peculiarly interesting book about rescue work."—Philadelphia Press.

SEEDS OF APRIL'S SOWING

By Adah Louise Sutton. Handsome buckram binding, gold stamped, $1.25.

"Contains some of the sweetest songs that the human heart can frame; and they are sung with a warmth and grace that secure spontaneous welcome."—Boston Ideas.

"This little volume contains some of the most engaging lyrics of motherhood that have been published in a long time."—N. Y. Press.

"A beautiful little gift book of verse—real poetry that speaks from heart to heart."—Cleveland World.

THE LIFE OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT

By Murat Halstead. Handsome de luxe binding, 450 pages, profusely illustrated.

"This book is written to give a clear and intelligent view of the man's character and attainments. . . . Murat Halstead is always luminous and always commands the attention of the reader."—Worcester Spy.

"His style is picturesque and ornate and never permits any of the striking features of the President's career to lose in the telling."—N. Y. Tribune.

A small book but weighty. An argument for the future life but still more a plea for beginning now to live the life that shall endure forever.

An Aid to Family Worship and Private Devotion

Whence Cometh Help

By Rev. JOHN W. BUCKHAM. Leatherette cover, 30 cents net.

A brief selection of Scripture for daily reading, followed by short prayers from various sources, including many ancient liturgies, beautiful in thought and in expression. There are also prayers, for anniversaries, birthdays and other special occasions, which are very appropriate, and admirably phrased.

Little Boom Number One

By Mrs. FRANK LEE. $1.00; to libraries, 67 cents.

Though this author has written some very interesting stories, such as "Professor Pin," "Garret Grain," "Redmond," etc., this is perhaps the most interesting of them all. The evolution of "Snags," a poor little waif; the travels of the photographer's van; the numerous amusing adventures all combine to make an exceedingly interesting story.

Polly State: One of Thirteen

By FRANCES J. DELANO. Illustrated by Chas. Copeland. 200 pages, $1.25; to libraries, 84 cents.

Those who have read this story as a serial in The Congregationalist will be glad to see it complete in book form, and they need not be told how bright and winsome it is and how full of inspiration and cheer.

A Sea Story for Boys

AN ANTARCTIC QUEEN

By CAPTAIN CHARLES CLARK, author of "The Story of an Ocean Tramp," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, illustrated, price, $1.75.

A splendid sea story for boys. Full of shipwrecks, storms, and peril and adventure by land and sea; how the hero escapes death from shipwreck, accident, and treachery of all kinds, and finally settles down in "Antarctica," after marrying the Antarctic Queen, is related in a most attractive and realistic style.

A New Story by Edgar Pickering

TRUE TO THE WATCHWORD

A Story of the Siege of Derry. By EDGAR PICKERING, author of "The Dogs of War," "The Fortunes of Claude," etc. With eight original illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED. Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt, price, $1.50.

Brightly written and full of incident, and the boy who loves a romance of action, with such a conductor as Mr. Pickering, will enjoy adventure to the full. The greater part of the action of the story takes place in and around Derry during the historic siege, which furnishes abundant opportunities for the narration of events of an exciting and dramatic nature.

"Nothing Succeeds Like Success."—TALLEYRAND

THE ART OF SUCCESS

By T. SHARPER KNOWLSON, author of "The Art of Thinking." 12mo, cloth, gilt top, price, $1.00. (Prospectus free on application.)

 The author's previous work was a guide to thought; this is a guide to action. The chapters treat of man and his environment—that much depends on the abilities and character. Luck, originality, limitations, and the increasing difficulties of success, are all dealt with at length. Practical illustrations of modern and successful action are made to prove that vital interest in one's work is the great secret. This is a hopeful book, it aims to tell both sides of the story, logically worked out; and will, we believe, serve as an inspiration to the young men of to-day.

10 INTENSELY INTERESTING BOOKS

"IN THE CAMP OF CORNWALLS."

By Dr. Everett T. Tomlinson.

A story of Reuben Denton and his experiences during the New Jersey campaign of 1777. It is a thrilling story replete with historic facts relative to the subject. It presents with purity of tone a happy mixture of action, snap and vigor, fervor and fun. While in interest and excellence it commends itself to the general reader, its patriotic teachings give it a particular fitness for the home and school libraries, a fact that will be speedily recognized. 353 pages, charmingly illustrated.

Price, Bound in Cloth, $1.50.

"THE BALASTER BOYS."

By Blanche M. Channing.

Around the home life of a professor's family, which includes three lively boys, into which is brought an orphan niece and cousin, is wound a tale that sparkles with originality and life. The atmosphere is pure and healthy, yet filled with incident and adventure, presented in the most charming manner. Miss Channing's characterizations make her books notable. 294 pages, illustrated by Frank T. Merrill.

"INCALAND."

By Claude H. Wetmore.

A thrilling story of adventure dealing with the interior of Peru and the closing chapters of the war with Chile. The initial volume of this series, "Fighting Under the Southern Cross," made a most favorable impression.

"Incaland" is destined to rank with the foremost stories of adventure of to-day. It is alive with action and thoroughly instructive as well. There are 309 pages, and the illustrations are by H. Burgess.

Price, Cloth, $1.50.

"SWEETBRIER AND THISTLEDOWN."

By James Newton Baskett.

This story is certainly unique in conception. For a background Mr. Baskett has chosen Western farm life. His characters are full of human interest and drawn with a vivacity and truthfulness to life that are at once captivating. It is the work of a deep student and authority on natural history. Beautiful colored frontispiece by William F. Stecher. 340 pages.

Price, $1.50.

"ON THE FRONTIER WITH ST. CLAIR."

By Chas. S. Wood.

Deals with the earlier settlement of the Ohio country. It is thrilling with frontier incidents that at once interest the reader, and so accurate in data that the Ohio educational circles have already adopted it. Brought into the story is romance, refined, delicate, and done with a true artistic touch. For amusement and for education every young person should procure a copy of this book. Fully illustrated. 343 pages.

Price, Bound in Cloth, $1.50.

"A LOYAL LASS."

By Amy E. Blanchard.

A story of the Niagara campaign of 1814 that is of deep interest to young people. Without ever losing sight of historical accuracy in reciting the events of this campaign, which gives the book its value, Miss Blanchard introduces and carries along with ease the love romances of the several young people in the story. Beautifully illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. 319 pages.

Price, Bound in Cloth, $1.50.

"THE CRUISE OF THE ENTERPRISE."

By James Otis.

An unusually interesting volume. The story is founded on the struggle and defeat of the French privateering expeditions against the United States in 1799. The subject is treated entertainingly, and the author certainly shows that he has the rare gift of happily selecting periods of interesting American history that teem with incidents. Illustrated by William F. Stecher. 359 pages.

Price, Bound in Cloth, $1.50.

"MR. PAT'S LITTLE GIRL."

By Mary F. Leonard.

A story of the Arden Foresters, full of pleasant humor, bright philosophy, and clever maxims that will surely delight those fortunate enough to read the book. The author's great success lies in her power of depicting children without the slightest unreality, yet with a touch of the ideal which all love. 322 pages; illustrations by Chas. Emerson.

Price, Bound in Cloth, $1.50.

"WHAT GLADYS SAW."

A Nature Story of Farm and Forest.

By Frances Margaret Fox.

A cleverly told nature story, with a wealth of nature study. It is intensely fascinating, as it is full of happy incidents, country epigrams, and brilliant rural scenes. The contrast between city and farm life is told in an analytic fashion that shows wide study and close observation. 320 pages, fully illustrated.

Price, Bound in Cloth, $1.25.

"A CHILD'S STORY OF the LIFE of CHRIST."

By Helen Brown Hoyt.

No author is more admirably fitted through experience and training to present in narrative form the Life of Christ than is this writer.

The volume is beautiful and simple in style, and is peculiarly adapted to the child's understanding.

It deals with each incident from annunciation to ascension, and all the more important phases are handsomely illustrated. For the home and the Sunday-school library it comes as a welcome guest. 233 pages, with illuminated cloth cover.

Price, $1.25.

"No lack of spirit and daring." — New York Sun.

A Beautiful Gift Book

Her Lord and Master

An International Romance.

By MARTHA MORTON.

This story, in its dramatized form, recently completed its 100th performance by Herbert Kelcey and Effie Shannon, in New York City.

Five full-page illustrations drawn by HOWARD CHANDLER CHRISTY and Esther MacNamara. Attractively bound in cloth, with decorative cover design. 400 pages. $1.50.

Miss Morton's story is very refreshing after the deluge of historical novels. It is full of good things, smart dialogue, interesting characters. In a charming way a contrast is made between the freedom and lack of restraint in our American ways and the severe, tight-laced customs of the aristocracy of the rich, in the peerage among our English cousins.

Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to his Son

By

George Horace Lorimer

12mo, cloth decorative
18 full page illustrations $1.50

Containing all the letters issued serially in the Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia, with some new letters not elsewhere published

IF you are not selling large quantities of this volume of the humorous, sound advice of OLD GORGON GRAHAM, Chicago pork packer, to his son Pierrepont, of Harvard University, it must be because your customers do not realize what a treat they are missing. If you show them a page or two every one of them will want the book. It is the greatest work of American humor since "Mr. Dooley," and it will interest every one from the oldest business man to the youngest clerk——Most readers believe that if "Old Gorgon Graham" had met David Harum in a horse trade, David would have had a new experience and "Old Gorgon" the horse.

It will be worth your while to call this book to the attention of business men as the most suitable Christmas gift for sons or employees

DONNA DIANA

By RICHARD BAGOT, author of "Casting of Nets," "A Roman Mystery," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt top, $1.50.

Mr. Richard Bagot has followed the "Casting of Nets" and "A Roman Mystery" with another study of the complicated social and religious intrigues which characterize certain circles of Rome. The plot of "Donna Diana" turns on the struggle between a young Englishman who wishes to marry the heroine, and her relatives who desire to see her take the veil. Mr. Bagot describes the domestic and social life of Rome with care and detail.

By Andrew Lang

THE DISENTANGLERS

By ANDREW LANG. With 7 full-page illustrations by H. J. Ford. Crown 8vo, $1.50.

"In the 'Disentanglers' the author has sought to combine humor and fantasy with a satire of contemporary society. . . . Two ingenious young Englishmen . . . set up an agency for the benefit of families, one member of which seems to be in danger of making an undesirable marriage. In the series of strange cases which these practitioners of a new profession were called upon to settle there is both unity of theme and variety of humorous adventure."

THREE CHOICE BOOKS

Annals of Old Manhattan, 1609-1664

By JULIA M. COLTON. A record of the early settlement of the island, introducing much in the way of tradition and history not hitherto published; illustrated with pictures reproduced in half-tone, representing some of the earliest buildings erected on the island, maps, etc. The illustrations are reproduced in dainty tints, following the appearance of the originals very closely. Printed in large, clear type, with red line borders. Octavo, cloth binding, net, $2.00. By mail, $2.18.

Italy

By THÉOPHILE GAUTIER. Translated by DANIEL B. VERMILYE. An entirely new and adequate translation of this little known delightful book of travel. With 27 full-page photogravure illustrations. 8vo, cloth, net, $3.00. By mail, $3.27.

The Power of Truth — Individual Problems and Possibilities

By WILLIAM GEORGE JORDAN. A collection of charmingly written essays on topics of general interest. The other papers in the book are entitled as follows: "The Courage to Face Ingratitude," "People Who Live in Air Castles," "Swords and Scabbards," "The Conquest of the Preventable," "The Championship of Tolerance," "The Things That Come Too Late," "The Way of the Reformer." 12mo, beautifully printed with red top-lines and initials, ornamented cloth, net, 75c. By mail, 83c.

The Most Beautiful Child's Book Ever Published

IN HAPPY FAR-AWAY LAND

By Ruth Kimball Gardiner & Illustrated by Howard Smith

A book which will live while children live.
A book which tells of the beauties of Mother-Goose days; not of their terrors.
A book to drive tears and cares from child-land and people it with laughter and joy.
A book to send the young to bed to pretty dreams and not to night-mare peopled with ogres.
A book that will amuse, instruct and govern any child as well as develop its mental faculties.
A book which teaches good by telling of the reward of the virtuous rather than of the punishment of the vicious.
A book whose every story was in the manuscript, read to children and received their unstinted approval and repeated demands for re-reading, before publication.

THE paper on which this number of the "BOOKSHELF" is printed was furnished by JOHN J. MURPHY, No. 47 John Street and 5 Dutch Street, New York, manufacturer of fine book, coated, and cover paper.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted" book-trade subscribers are given the privilege of a free advertisement for books out of print, of five nonpareil lines exclusive of address, in any issue except special numbers, to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents a line, and amount should be inclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents a line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents a nonpareil line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter.

All other small, undisplayed, advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents a nonpareil line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

BOOKS WANTED.

☞ In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

Houses that are willing to deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word [Cash].

☞ Write your wants plainly and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

It should be understood that the appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the "Publishers' Weekly" does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it is endeavored to safeguard these columns by withdrawing the privilege of their use from advertisers who are not "good pay," booksellers should take the usual precaution, as to advertisers not known to them, that they would take in making sales to any unknown parties.

BEST HOLIDAY BOOKS

LIZETTE

By EDWARD MARSHALL

Former War Correspondent and author of "The Rough Riders"

Illustrations by C. D. Williams and J. C. Fireman

Mr. Marshall has given to the reading public in "Lizette" a charming and beautiful story. It is a book to make one laugh and cry and think, and through it all the witchery of dainty, winsome "Lizette"—the girl of the "Quarter"—appeals irresistibly to our sympathies.

"Will win the sympathy of all readers who will forget Lizette's one fault in reading of her long self-inflicted penance for it."—Cleveland Recorder.

Cloth $2.00

I WILL REPAY

By GEORGE DYRE ELDRIDGE

An absorbing mystery story, a story of reparation that holds one's interest to the very last page. Its pictures of New England life are drawn with a familiar and sympathetic touch. The story is as striking as its title.

"Told with excellent dramatic effect and spirited action."—New York Press.

Cloth $1.50

FRIARS AND FILIPINOS

A Translation of DR. JOSE RIZAL'S patriotic Tagalog novel, "NOLI ME TANGERE"

Monographs of Artists

We again call the attention of the students of art and history as well as all those interested in art for its own sake to the excellent popular series of volumes issued under the general title of MONOGRAPHS OF ARTISTS, which will be found

A Gift of Inestimable Value

not for a day or season, but for all time. In these series the great periods of art, and the lives of those who took leading parts in developing art in all its phases, are treated in a manner that will satisfy the most exacting critic as well as instruct and please the layman. The volumes are prepared by, or under the editorial direction of, Professor H. KNACKFUSS, Professor at the Royal Academy of Arts, Cassel, an eminent authority on art, and translated into English by Campbell Dodgson, Assistant in the Department of Prints and Drawings at the British Museum. While the volumes are necessarily kept within a restricted compass it is no exaggeration to maintain that no vital fact relating to the subjects treated is omitted. The series now includes the following monographs on all of which are printed on good paper, lavishly illustrated, and bound, in excellent taste, in flexible cloth.

Raphael Rembrandt Dürer
Holbein Van Dyck Botticelli

Each volume, in cloth, gilt top, $1.50

HEARTS COURAGEOUS

BY

MISS RIVES

Cover design of "Hearts Courageous."

Miss Rives' latest triumph is "Hearts Courageous," a romance of the Declaration of Independence. It is "a love story as delicious as the great passion itself." With six illustrations by A. B. Wenzell. Beautifully bound, price, $1.50, postpaid.

THE NEW PHOTOGRAVURE BOOKS

JAPAN AND HER PEOPLE

By ANNA C. HARTSHORNE

Illustrated with 50 photogravures. 2 vols. Crown 8vo. Cloth extra, gilt tops; in cloth box . . . . . net, $4.00
Three-quarters crushed morocco, gilt top . . . . . net, $8.00

Miss Hartshorne writes of Japan and Japanese people from an intimate knowledge of her subject at first hands, having been a resident of the country and brought closely into touch with native life. The book will take rank as a thorough exposition of the Island Kingdom and is written in a charming style. No more attractive holiday book will be issued this season.

VIENNA AND THE VIENNESE

By MARIA HORNOR LANSDALE

Illustrated with 25 photogravures and a map. Crown 8vo. Cloth extra, gilt top; in cloth box . . . . . net, $2.40

Vienna is in many respects the most fascinating and brilliant city in Europe. Miss Lansdale has handled the theme with her accustomed skill, making one of the most readable books of the year. The fine photogravures are quite equal to the others that have made the whole series so noteworthy and popular.
